PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

CX Designer II

07/2022 – 07/2025 | Bogotá, COL

Nueva EPS

Collaborated with cross-functional teams of engineers, designers, researchers, and health experts at Nueva EPS, the main health insurance company in Colombia, to tackle complex challenges in healthcare accessibility, serving more than 9 million members.

- Led end-to-end redesign of a patient-facing app used by 1M+ members monthly, conducting research, restructuring information architecture, and prototyping.
- Designed user flows, crafted UX writing, and developed a content strategy for a WhatsApp chatbot facilitating seamless medical appointment bookings. With over 1.8 million users, the chatbot achieved a 97% satisfaction rate.

Design Intern

10/2021 – 04/2022 | Bogotá, COL

Huge

Strengthened design culture and internal communications as part of Huge's intern team, while contributing to three client projects for major US brands.

- Designed visual layout for Converse's 2022-2024 Communications Playbook, a two-year brand guide, collaborating with Huge's Oakland office using Adobe Creative Suite and Keynote.
- Collaborated in the development of Planet Fitness' mobile app design system, focusing on style guides and text field specifications in Figma, while gaining hands-on experience in design system best practices.
- Executed internal communication campaigns across Bogotá and Medellín offices, reaching 500+ employees. Produced and narrated internal project videos using Adobe Premiere.

Brand Designer

10/2020 – 09/2021 | Bogotá, COL

Corporación Mundial de la Mujer Colombia

Executed end-to-end brand design for 14 entrepreneurial ventures: conducted brand audits and created briefs, crafted strategies and brand guidelines, designed logos, social media graphics, presentations, and product photography.

- Built trusted relationships with entrepreneur clients, presenting creative brand solutions tailored to business goals and target audiences.
- Researched trademark availability, guiding 30+ entrepreneurial ventures through the registration process to protect intellectual property.
